

Massachusetts Licensed Companies Offering Medical Malpractice Insurance to Health Care Providers in Massachusetts

Disclaimer: Please note that the list on this website is based upon information submitted by companies indicating that they offer medical malpractice coverage in Massachusetts.

Carriers do change their offerings and the Division will update information on its website when made aware of any changes.

Please contact the company or your producer if you have any specific questions regarding medical malpractice insurance.

Please Note: Massachusetts currently has a “take all comers” medical malpractice insurance statute (M.G.L. c. 175, § 193U) that indicates, in part, that every medical malpractice insurer will make available to every health care provider every primary medical malpractice insurance coverage, as defined in the plan or rules of operation of the medical malpractice reinsurance plan, which it provides to any health care provider.

Health Care Provider (as defined under M.G.L. c. 175, § 193U) means any category of health care provider that was authorized to obtain medical malpractice insurance from the Joint Underwriting Association established by section 6 of chapter 362 of the acts of 1975, including but not limited to, a doctor of medicine, osteopathy, optometry, dental science, physical therapists and physical therapist assistants licensed under chapter 112, podiatry, chiropractic, or registered nurse licensed under the provisions of chapter 112, an intern, fellow or medical officer licensed under the provisions of section 9 of said chapter 112 or a licensed hospital, clinic, or nursing home, and its agents and employees, and any other category of health care provider as the Commissioner of Insurance may from time to time designate as eligible for being ceded to the medical malpractice reinsurance plan.
